Property Details

Open spaces and gentle breezes are the hallmark of this charming villa located in Toiny. Enjoy the view from the spacious poolside deck and listen to sound of waves crashing below. This recently renovated villa is walking distance to the beach and to the Toiny Hotel which offers one of the hottest beach clubs around. The villa has an open floor plan with a modern kitchen that opens to the interior dining and living spaces. The large outdoor space has plenty of room for lounging by the pool or dining al fresco. There are two bedrooms in the main building and a third that has its own private access as well. The villa is a great starting investment on St Barth or the perfect family home.
